Order Providing for Monthly Payments for Stay Relief under Certain Circumstances
Page 2

This matter having been brought on before this Court on motion for stay relief filed by John R. Morton, Jr., Esq., attorney for AmeriCredit Financial Services, Inc., d/b/a GM Financial, with the appearance of Robert Nisenson, Esq. on behalf of the debtor, and this order having been filed with the Court and served upon the debtor and his attorney under the seven day rule with no objections having been received as to the form or entry of the order, and for good cause shown;

IT IS ORDERED:

1. That AmeriCredit Financial Services, Inc., d/b/a GM Financial is the holder of a first purchase money security interest encumbering a 2014 GMC TERRAIN bearing serial number 2GKALMEK0E6170391 (hereinafter the "vehicle").
2. The debtor shall make all retail installment payments to GM Financial when due, being the 3rd day of each month. If the debtor fails to make any payment for a period of 30 days after it falls due, AmeriCredit Financial Services, Inc., d/b/a GM Financial shall receive stay relief to repossess and sell the vehicle by filing a certification of nonpayment and serving it upon the debtor and his attorney.
3. The debtor shall maintain insurance on the vehicle in accordance with the terms of the retail installment contract. AmeriCredit Financial Services, Inc., d/b/a GM Financial shall be listed as loss payee. In the event of a lapse of insurance for any period of time without intervening coverage, AmeriCredit Financial Services, Inc., d/b/a GM Financial shall receive stay relief by filing a certification that insurance has lapsed with the court and serving it upon the debtor and his attorney.
4. The debtor shall pay to AmeriCredit Financial Services, Inc., d/b/a GM Financial through the plan, a counsel fee of $531 which shall be paid by the trustee as an administrative priority expense.
